Special Ministries

Plastic Bags for Fayette Samaritans

Ongoing collection of plastic grocery bags for Fayette Samaritans! Just place them in the container in the Welcome Center. Thank you for helping to meet this need.

Cold Weather Clothing Collection

Many thanks to our super generous Lisbon folks who donated 13 bags of coats, jackets, sweaters, gloves, caps scarves and socks that were then given to Rushton's Hope organization for distribution to the homeless and/or needy in the Griffin/Spalding County area. It not only gives them a "warm feeling" but it demonstrates God's love and care in a meaningful way.

COMING UP

SCHOOL LUNCH MINISTRY

Coming up on Thursday, February 6th, we will be treating our neighboring school staffs with a lunch thanking them for all they do for the children of our community. We will be preparing and delivering a little over 300 sack lunches to the staff of our three neighboring schools. To start this, we will need 16 people to bake 2 dozen nut free brownies and have them delivered to the Fellowship Hall by Wednesday, February 5th.

Then, we will need several volunteers to be in the Fellowship Hall by 8:30 AM Thursday morning, February 6th to make sandwiches, assemble the lunches and deliver them to the schools by 10:15.

“Wings of Wisdom”

JANUARY’S W.O.W. Luncheon

Approximately 40 – 45 people enjoyed the Home-Made vegetable soup (Travis Whitaker’s recipe) and cornbread lunch on a chilly, rainy afternoon. Lunch was followed by an inspiring devotion brought by Tom Romine and some wonderful singing by Lynn Dolan, Ken Almand, Tim Covert and Richard Carter, plus a sing-a-long of old gospel favorites led by Tim Covert. We had a wonderful experience worshipping God through the devotion and singing!

OUR NEXT W.O.W. SENIORS’ LUNCHEON IS TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 11th at 12 Noon

Meat – Fried Chicken will be furnished .

Veggies, breads, salads & Desserts – Bring your favorite covered dishes.

DEVOTION will be brought by David Head

PROGRAM – Fayette County Sheriff, Barry Babb will be with us to talk about church & personal security and perhaps talk about the county S.W.A.T Team.
